

Thanks very much for your and the Reviewer's effort in the evaluation of this paper.

We upload the revised version of the MS. All substantial changes have been indicated in blue in the text. We have, however, not indicated minor changes in language and abbreviations suggested by the Reviewers and made by ourselves as these are of little importance.

The main points are clearly visible: they affect the pair anisotropy which contributes to substantially modify the mirror growth. This has been discussed.